Holiday Issue: Staying the Course, With Your Help!

It has been a sobering year as we unearth the degree to which many larger “conservation” groups are being bought off by, and are mouthing the utilitarian rhetoric of, government and industry. Yet there are promising signs that spirit, faith, integrity, passion, and compassion have not waned from grass-roots organizations.

Indeed, a revitalization of these core values is underway and can be witnessed in the words of leaders including Pope Francis, First Nations and American Indian Tribes. It is becoming increasingly clear that relentless consumerism will not cure the damage it is causing to the worlds’ peoples and Earth’s ecosystems (see page 2).

Now largely opposed by regional and national organizations which once helped us, grass-roots groups like ours are staying the course and working together to hold the line. While extreme sports advocates have urged Patagonia and the Cinnabar Foundation to cease funding our work, both have instead increased the size of their grants to us in recent years - and we are thankful for that support! And this year the work of SVC’s Keith Hammer was honored by Friends of the Clearwater (page 2).

Two-thirds of our financial support and most of the praise for our work, however, comes directly from our members like you! On page 3, we give thanks to those of you who have already made donations to support our work this year and we include on page 4 a few words of unsolicited praise which have come our way recently! Both are vital to our success!

A special thanks goes out to those of you who helped us meet our Cinnabar challenge grant and, on page 5, we make our year-end plea for you to help us raise the remaining $16,000 needed to meet our expenses this year. It’s been an extra busy year with the skewed politics of wildfire piled on top of our field work, research and lawsuits filed on behalf of fish and wildlife! We’ve done it before and will again - with your help!

HAPPY SOLSTICE, HAPPY HOLIDAYS, HAPPY NEW YEAR, and THANK YOU!

Keith Hammer Receives Macfarlane Plank Award!

Swan View’s Chair Keith Hammer received the Macfarlane Plank Award from Friends of the Clearwater at their November 7th annual meeting. FOC describes it as “an achievement honor for more than 20 years of service and accomplishment within the regional wild-lands protection movement. The people signing this Plank have sacrificed personally and significantly to work for protecting our commons, wild lands, biodiversity, and natural processes.”

Hammer’s signature on the artfully carved pacific yew Plank appears alongside other notable annual recipients of the award begun in 2006: Gary Macfarlane, Stuart Brandborg, Larry McClard, Barry Rosenberg, Fred Rabe, George Nickas, Liz Sedlar, Jeff Juel, and Karen Coulter. Hammer was also presented a beautiful Chief Joseph Robe blanket on behalf of FOC by FOC Board member and Nez Perce Tribal member Julian Matthews, FOC’s Ecosystem Defense Director Gary Macfarlane, and FOC Founder and Board member Steve Paulson (pictured above, left to right).

Keeping the Faith!

“The greatest danger in today’s world, pervaded as it is by consumerism, is the desolation and anguish born of a complacent yet covetous heart, the feverish pursuit of frivolous pleasures, and a blunted conscience . . . We have forgotten that we ourselves are dust of the earth; our very bodies made up of her elements, we breathe her air and we receive life and refreshment from her waters.” (Pope Francis)

“We must go beyond the arrogance of human rights. We must go beyond the ignorance of civil rights. We must step into the reality of natural rights because all of the natural world has a right to existence and we are only a small part of it. There can be no trade-off.” (John Trudell, Lakota activist and poet)

“Reconsider the decision to delist the grizzly bear from the Endangered Species Act and to permit States to profit from trophy hunts of this sacred being. The AFN fully supports the positions of the recognized tribes in the United States who share this [op]position.” (Perry Bellegarde, Assembly of First Nations)
